

Yerevan Academy for Linguistics and Philosophy

General Information

The Yerevan Academy for Linguistics and Philosophy (YALP) is an intensive summer program in linguistics and philosophy. YALP 2018 will bring together 50 undergraduate and graduate students from Armenia and other countries in the region.

The purpose of the academy is to provide an opportunity for students to develop their knowledge and skills, possibly with a view toward applying to doctoral programs in philosophy or linguistics (including programs in the USA and Europe).

Participation in The Yerevan Academy for Linguistics and Philosophy is free of charge.
